AIRPORT SHUTTLE COMPANIES FOR TRIPS OUTSIDE BUDAPEST (AIRPORT-TO-HOTEL SERVICES)

Minibus transfer is the most convenient way to reach Pécs from the Budapest (or Osijek) airport. Companies are providing you a door-to-door transportation. The journey time from Pécs to Budapest Liszt Ferenc International Airport is around 3 hours on the average, depending on the time of the year, and on weather conditions (it may be longer in winter months and in extreme weather conditions). In case of journeys from Budapest Liszt Ferenc International Airport to Pécs, car drivers will be expecting arriving Passengers with a sheet featuring the logo of the Company. After the arrival of passengers using the classic collective shuttle service, some waiting time may occur at the airport, depending on the arrival time of the other passengers. The times of departure from the addresses (in Pécs) specified are determined accordingly.

Primary route of travel is Motorway M6. (For more details and information, please visit the providers' webpage!) (You can use your credit/debit card upon on-board payment, but for details, please check the providers webpage.)

TRAVEL BY BUS

Coaches from Budapest are departing from “Népstadion” bus station. The station in Pécs is located at the edge of downtown; therefore each district is easy to reach with the help of the local bus service.

You can reach the bus schedule at (available only in Hungarian: <https://menetrendek.hu/>)

TRAVEL BY CAR

The easiest way to reach Pécs is through the route 6 and the M6 motorway. You can join someone: the car sharing services are popular among students from across the country. It's cheaper than if we would travel alone, and - since most of the car sharing systems have a serious feedback / evaluation system- it is much safer than hitchhiking.

CURRENCY

Hungary's currency is the Hungarian Forint. This is either shortened to the code HUF or the symbol Ft. When buying things, locals are most likely to just say "Forint", pronounced for-int. Euros might be accepted at several places with the store's exchange rate displayed on the counter, but change is likely to be given in Forints.

However, major credit/debit cards (VISA, VISA Electron, Maestro, MasterCard) are widely accepted. Most ATMs accept foreign bankcards and ATMs are very easy to find, there is a number of them throughout the city centre of Pécs.

There are many exchange offices in the city centre of Pécs:
